

RESOLVE Grant and Scholarship Web Listings

RESOLVE: The National Infertility Association believes that anyone living with infertility deserves access to all family building options. RESOLVE understands that often there are financial barriers for many when it comes to building their family. In order to better serve the infertility community, RESOLVE would like to list on our website organizations that offer scholarships or grants to women and men diagnosed with infertility.

NON-PROFITS

Non-profits who offer financial grants or scholarships to individuals for pursuing their family building (medical treatment or adoption) and who want RESOLVE to post information about their organization on resolve.org must meet the following criteria: RESOLVE reserves the right to remove an organization at any time.

Criteria

- Documentation of the organization's established 501(c)(3) or 501(c)(6) status for a minimum of 1 year
- Provide most recent 990
- Must have given at least one grant. Please provide documentation, such as:
 - Grant notification letter
 - Annual report
 - Letter from clinic or agency acknowledging payment
- Provide a mission statement or description of the organization's purpose to RESOLVE.
- Must host a website*
- Must list the organization's Board of Directors on their website*
- Must communicate to their constituents via email
- The grant selection process must minimize bias to be determined by RESOLVE
 - Provide a detailed description of the applicant selection process on their website
 - Please include who the grant is open to (e.g. single person, married couples only, LGBT)

*Please provide a link

FOR PROFITS

For profit businesses who offer financial grants or scholarships to individuals for pursuing their family building (medical treatment or adoption) and who want RESOLVE to post information about their organization on resolve.org must meet the following criteria: RESOLVE reserves the right to remove an organization at any time.

Criteria

- Must be open to the general public, not just employees
- Program must have been in place for at least 1 year and have given at least 1 grant.
Please provide documentation, such as:
 - Grant notification letter
 - Letter from clinic or agency acknowledging payment
- Provide a mission statement or description of the grant program to RESOLVE.
- Must host a dedicated program page on its website*
- Must communicate to applicants via email
- The grant selection process must minimize bias to be determined by RESOLVE
 - Provide a detailed description of the applicant selection process on their website
 - Please include who the grant is open to (e.g. single person, married couples only, LGBT)

*Please provide a link

Please email your criteria attachments to sbookal@resolve.org

Questions? Please contact Simmy Bookal, 703-506-3273, sbookal@resolve.org.

Long-term Updating Process

The organization is responsible for sending RESOLVE updated information regarding their grant/scholarship listing.

Send your updated information to sbookal@resolve.org

About RESOLVE

RESOLVE: The National Infertility Association is dedicated to ensuring that all people challenged in their family building journey reach resolution through being empowered by knowledge, supported by community, united by advocacy, and inspired to act. www.resolve.org